

2017 Camp K on Kenai Lake & 2017 Camp Si La Meo

Scholarship Information

Please read before completing the application.

Sometimes circumstances put a strain on the family budget making financial assistance necessary. Camp Fire Alaska Camp Scholarships are designed to help families through those periods of financial difficulty. Camp Fire is deeply grateful to the individual donors, foundations, and corporations who provide funding to our agency so that we can provide families with financial assistance.

What is a Camp Scholarship?

- Scholarships are awarded to assist with camp fees only.
- All families must register online and pay deposits of $35 per session and the $50 registration fee per child prior to submitting a scholarship application.
- Deposits are applied to the session fees. In the unlikely event that a camp scholarship is not awarded, fees will be returned to the registering parent/adult.
- Registration and deposit fees are not refunded due to withdrawal or changing camp sessions.
- All other accounts must be in good standing with Camp Fire before a scholarship is awarded.

To apply for a Camp Scholarship:

- Register online before applying for the scholarship. Scholarship applications received without registration will not be processed.
- Complete the Application: Answers to all questions are required for the application to be processed.
- Return the Application: Return completed application to the Camp Fire office via mail, fax or email
- Verify Income: In order to verify income, you MUST attach copies of your most recent pay stubs (minimum of two) and/or other income sources for all adults in your household. Applications submitted without these attachments will not be processed.
- Applications and registration forms with unanswered questions may be returned causing a delay in processing.

What happens next?

- Applications are verified and reviewed by management staff for approval.
- Applicants will be notified via mail of their approved scholarship application. Allow up to three weeks for processing after submitting completed application. Balances are due on the 1st of the month.
- Occasionally, applications may be placed on a waiting list until scholarship funds become available.
