

HALIBUT COVE PACKING LIST

All Lost and Found items will be held two weeks after the session ends. Items not picked up by that date will be donated to a charitable organization.

CLOTHING- Synthetic material is recommended, excluding underwear. Cotton clothing can cause hypothermia if it becomes wet!

Silly or wacky outfit

Hiking Boots (worn in, not brand new, with ankle support! Brand new boots will cause blisters. Ideally waterproof)

Underwear (4-5 pairs)

Shirts (3)

Long pants (1-2)

Hiking socks (ideally medium weight, 4-5 pairs)

Fleece or nano puff jacket (no cotton hoodies or other jackets)

Rain jacket (this must be a waterproof shell and not a windbreaker). Check to make sure it works. A soggy jacket will be miserable.

Rain pants (this must be waterproof and not just a windbreaker). Check to make sure they work.

Rain boots (like Xtratufs)

SLEEPING

Sleeping Bag, rated to at least 20 degrees Fahrenheit

Small pillow or a stuff sack to make a pillow with clothing inside

Sleeping pad

PERSONAL ITEMS

Bug spray (DEET is the most effective. Research shows it is safe)

Water bottles, 2, 1 Liter each, durable (i.e. Nalgene)

Toothbrush & toothpaste

Sunscreen

Sunglasses

Day pack (backpack for hiking) 30-40 liters

Shampoo/soap in a baggie

Brush

Bath towel

MEDICATION - Pack separately from other gear in a ziplock bag, marked with your name. You'll give this to the staff during drop-off.

OPTIONAL

Shorts (1 pair)

Digital camera – cell phones are not allowed

Head lamp or flash light

Binoculars

Reading/writing material

Flip flops - for showering only

Swim suit – we have a lake and sauna at camp that we may or may not use

DO NOT BRING - These items are not allowed on the trip.

Cell phone - the point of this trip is to disconnect. You can bring a digital camera, if you'd like, but you may not use your phone as a camera. Our staff carries a satellite communication device as well as an emergency cell phone.

Tablet or other computer-type device

iPod or other music listening device

Electronic games (such as a Nintendo Switch or PlayStation Vita)

Money
