

Camp Fire
Alaska

Leadership Training Program

Come to Camp K for a month and join us for a unique Leader in Training (LiT) program!

✓ WHO: Campers that are 15-17 years of age, able to come to camp for a month session, interested in learning about leadership opportunities in the camp setting, wanting to work with young people alongside your peer group

✓ WHAT: A four-week program with the purpose of building your skills as a leader

✓ WHEN: Session One: June 4-June 30 or Session Two: July 5-July 28

✓ WHERE: Camp K on Kenai Lake in Cooper Landing, Alaska

PARTICIPANTS RECEIVE

- A $500 stipend
- Free travel to and from Camp K from their home community
- Food and lodging for the duration of the four-week program
- Life and job skills training

WEEK 1

Experience Camp K as a teen participant—a range of outdoor activities such as kayaking, swimming, creative arts, teambuilding, sports and games, hiking, archery/riflery and more!

WEEK 2

Participants will begin the Leadership Training program with specific training on how-to facilitate and guide youth camp programming, work with young campers' behaviors, build communication strategies with coworkers and leadership, as well as safety procedures related to the role as a staff member.

WEEK 3

Transition to assuming responsibility for a cabin group and leading activities alongside supportive adult mentors.

WEEK 4

Continue responsibilities working with a cabin group and leading activities as well as participate in job related skill building discussions.

Interested? Request an application from our Camp K Director, Tom Martin, at (907) 891-0644 or tmartin@campfireak.org. Space is limited.

This work is made possible by a grant from the American Camp Association (ACA), a 501(c)(3) national nonprofit. ACA serves the more than 15,000 year-round and summer camps in the US who annually serve 26 million campers.